Gov. Roland B. Inting
IBP Eastern Visayas Region

Governor Roland B. Inting is an old hand at the IBP. He was a former National Secretary (1997-2001), Assistant National Secretary (1995-1997), and two-time Convention Director of the IBP sponsored National Convention of Lawyers (1997-Davao City, and 2001-Cebu City). His knowledge of IBP affairs is very extensive, having been active in the organization for more than a decade.

A native of Bohol, he finished law in 1977 at the Divine Word College (now the Holy Name University, Bohol) and passed the Bar that same year.

In 1981, he was an exchange scholar under the Rotary Club Group Study program. He was then granted an honorary citizenship by the city government of Oxnard, California. In 1991, he was a United States Information Agency (USIA) scholar to the states of Nebraska, Colorado, Texas and California. At that time, he was the executive assistant to the Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives. He was also granted in April 1991 the title of Adopted Citizen of Nebraska.

Governor Inting is married to Liwayway Vergara. They have seven wonderful children.
