Registration Terms and Conditions

General Provisions

1. Registration for the 21st National Convention of Lawyers shall be conducted exclusively through the official IBP Website (ibp.ph).
2. Existing MyIBP App account credentials may be used to access the IBP Website. Members who do not yet have an account must create one through the IBP Website prior to registration.
3. Only members who are up-to-date in the payment of their IBP membership dues are eligible to register for the Convention.

A. Early Bird Registration

1. The Early Bird Registration Period shall run from July 1, 2026 until July 31, 2026, or until the allocated Early Bird registration slots have been fully subscribed, whichever comes first.
2. All Early Bird registrations are non-refundable.
3. An Early Bird registration may be assigned to another eligible registrant, provided that:
   a. the assignment is completed on or before July 31, 2026;
   b. the assignee is likewise up-to-date in the payment of IBP membership dues; and
   c. the assignee has an active account in the official IBP Website (ibp.ph).
4. Any assignment of an Early Bird registration effected after July 31, 2026 shall be treated as a Regular Registration. As a condition for approval of such assignment, the original registrant shall pay the additional registration fee of Two Thousand Pesos (₱2,000.00), representing the difference between the Early Bird and Regular Registration rates.
5. The Senior Citizen and Persons with Disabilities (PWD) discounted registration rates shall not apply to Early Bird registrations.
6. Where an Early Bird registration is assigned:
   a. the original Official Receipt issued to the original registrant shall remain unchanged;
   b. no new Official Receipt shall be issued in the name of the assignee; and
   c. the shirt size selected upon the original registration shall be deemed final and shall not be subject to change.

7. An assignment request that does not comply with these Registration Terms and Conditions, including the eligibility requirements of the assignee, shall not be processed.

B. Regular, Senior Citizen, and PWD Registration

1. All registrations are non-refundable.
2. A registration may be assigned to another eligible registrant only once, provided that:
   a. the assignee is likewise up-to-date in the payment of IBP membership dues; and
   b. the assignee has an active account in the official IBP Website (ibp.ph).
3. All assignment requests must be completed on or before October 31, 2026. No assignment shall be permitted after said date, and all registrations shall thereafter be deemed final.
4. If a registration purchased under the Senior Citizen or PWD discounted registration rate is assigned, the original registrant shall first pay the amount of Two Thousand Pesos (₱2,000.00), representing the difference between the discounted registration fee and the Regular Registration fee. The assignment shall not be processed until such payment has been received.
5. Where a registration is assigned:
   a. the original Official Receipt issued to the original registrant shall remain unchanged;
   b. no new Official Receipt shall be issued in the name of the assignee; and
   c. the shirt size selected upon the original registration shall be deemed final and shall not be subject to change.
6. Registrations completed after October 31, 2026 shall receive free-size convention shirts only, subject to availability.
7. Convention tickets shall be issued electronically and shall be accessible through the registrant's account in the official IBP Website (ibp.ph).
8. There shall be no on-site registration.
9. The Integrated Bar of the Philippines reserves the right to verify the identity and eligibility of all registrants and assignees. Any registration or assignment found to be in violation of these Registration Terms and Conditions may be denied, cancelled, or refused processing without prejudice to such other remedies as may be available under the applicable rules.

C. Miscellaneous Provisions

1. By completing the registration process, every registrant acknowledges that he or she has read, understood, and agreed to be bound by these Registration Terms and Conditions.
2. The Integrated Bar of the Philippines reserves the right to interpret, amend, supplement, or issue guidelines for the implementation of these Registration Terms and Conditions whenever necessary to ensure the orderly administration of the Convention.
3. Any question concerning the interpretation or implementation of these Registration Terms and Conditions shall be resolved by the Convention Committee, subject to the authority of the IBP Board of Governors.

D. Data Privacy

1. The Integrated Bar of the Philippines (IBP) shall collect, process, store, and use the personal information provided by registrants solely for purposes related to the administration of the 21st National Convention of Lawyers, including registration, verification of membership eligibility, payment validation, ticket issuance, event management, security, communications, and post-event documentation.
2. By registering for the Convention, every registrant expressly consents to the processing of his or her personal information by the IBP in accordance with the Data Privacy Act of 2012 (Republic Act No. 10173), its Implementing Rules and Regulations, and the IBP Privacy Policy.
3. Registrants acknowledge that personal information may be shared with duly authorized service providers or partners engaged by the IBP solely for purposes necessary to administer the Convention, subject to appropriate confidentiality and data protection safeguards.
4. Registrants further acknowledge that official photographs, video recordings, live streams, and other audio-visual materials may be taken during the Convention. By participating in the Convention, registrants grant the IBP permission to use such photographs and recordings for documentation, reporting, archival, educational, and promotional purposes, without further compensation, provided that such use is consistent with applicable laws and legitimate organizational purposes.
5. The IBP shall implement reasonable organizational, physical, and technical security measures to protect personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, loss, misuse, or destruction, consistent with applicable law.

6. Registrants may exercise their rights as data subjects in accordance with the Data Privacy Act of 2012 and the IBP Privacy Policy by contacting the IBP through its official communication channels.
